

Assignment Name : Kishoriutthan, Phase I (2004-06)
Project Area: Uttarakhand
District	Block	AWC covered
Tehri	9	592
Chamoli	9	443
Uttarkashi	6	296
Total	24	1331
Funder: United Nations World Food Programme, Department of Women Empowerment & Child Development, Govt. of Uttaranchal
Goals: To empower the adolescent girls and improve their health, nutritional status and well-being so that they can have better control over their lives and bodies.
Objectives:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>* To enhance adolescent general health, hygiene and nutrition status of adolescent girls in the project blocks.</li> <li>* To promote reproductive and sexual health among adolescent girls in the age range of 11 to 19 years.</li> <li>* To empower adolescents through life skills and vocational skills</li> <li>* To establish inter-sectoral collaboration and linkages as well as promote community participation in enabling adolescent health and development.</li> <li>* To sensitize and build capacity of ICDS functionaries and NGOs for effective implementation of adolescent initiatives in 75 ICDS Projects.</li> <li>* To make adolescent training kits available in all AWCs in 75 ICDS Projects.</li> </ul>
Achievements:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>* Development of "YUVANSH" Kit.</li> <li>* 40 Field trainers trained through YUVANSH kit.</li> <li>* 1331 Master trainers trained.</li> <li>* 1331 formed adolescents groups.</li> <li>* 27,000 adolescents trained.</li> <li>* 24 ARC established.</li> </ul>			